

TERMS & CONDITIONS – REFER TO SIMON

Please read and accept the terms and conditions by ticking the box
“I accept the Terms & Conditions of Refer to Simon”.

Referrals made to Simon Wilkins are treated in strict confidence. By referring someone to Simon for contact, you acknowledge that your name, email and contact information is retained by Simon for the purposes of identifying you as the originator of the referral and to allow future contact should a payment be required. Until a referral has been successful, we shall not require payment information. We will not contact you by email to request any payment information until we have confirmed the details of the successful referral and the amount we are rewarding. We will never ask for payment information by email. Simon will make contact directly by phone.

In order for a referral to be successful, the referred candidate must not already be in contact with Simon Wilkins or be known to Simon Wilkins. Further, the candidate referral has to pass the probationary period of employment with Simon’s client in order to qualify.

Simon’s decision is final regarding any referral payments and the amounts will vary according to the seniority of the role being filled by the referred candidate.

Simon is an ethical and professional Headhunter and this scheme is designed to say thank you for your help, not to cause unnecessary animosity.

Simon Wilkins – The Headhunter for Housebuilding